

Our Firm

Excellence, Creativity and Commitment are the cornerstones on which White and Williams was built more than a century ago. These core values have been the foundation of our success as we have grown into a premier full-service provider of sophisticated legal services.

By delivering the highest quality work in a cost-effective manner, we add value to every client relationship. Within our varied and dynamic practice groups, you will consistently find highly-talented legal minds with extensive real-world experience. Whether the challenge is a complex transaction or high stakes litigation, our lawyers will bring to bear the preeminent skill and wealth of knowledge necessary to achieve Excellent results.

The challenge of providing innovative solutions to complex legal problems informs everything we do. We keep our clients in front of the curve by collaborating with them to spot and take advantage of emerging trends. Our Creativity yields sound and proactive counsel for our clients.

We are dedicated to our clients' interests and strive to understand each client's unique challenges and how best to address them. This Commitment has allowed us to develop longstanding client relationships based on trust and confidence. Our clients rely on our accessibility and exceptional personal service and know that we deliver results. Steadfast Commitment to our clients' objectives is both our passion and our heritage.

Excellence, Creativity and Commitment are more than words to us. They guide the service we provide to each and every client. They are the foundations on which we've built our reputation.
