Kyle Rice focuses his practice on complex commercial and residential property damage cases involving fires, water losses, explosions, construction defects and product liability throughout the United States. He takes a comprehensive analytical approach to each individual claim to ensure best results for clients and guide them step-by-step through initial investigation to recovery to ensure optimal results.

Kyle worked full-time while attending Temple University Beasley School of Law in the evening, including as a law clerk in the White and Williams Subrogation Department.

Recognition & Involvement

Kyle is currently a blogger for The Subrogation Strategist, White and Williams' subrogation blog. Kyle was awarded Temple Law's Certificate in Trial Advocacy upon completion of the Advanced Trial Advocacy Program. He also served as a Teacher's Assistant for the Integrated Trial Advocacy Program.

At Penn State, Kyle served as President of Phi Sigma Pi National Honors Fraternity and as a member of the Student Programming Lecture Series Committee. He currently volunteers at Morris Animal Refuge in Philadelphia and previously served as a Big Brother with Big Brother Big Sister of Southeastern Pennsylvania.
