Marianne Bradley advises insurance and corporate clients on commercial matters. She represents major property and casualty insurers in complex coverage and defense disputes.

Marianne's work includes advising and defending insurance carriers on a variety of both first-and third-party claims, including business interruption and civil authority shut-down claims related to the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic.

While in law school, Marianne was a member of the Moot Court Competition Team where she competed in both local and national competitions. Marianne served as a judicial intern for the Honorable Marjorie O. Rendell, of the United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit. She also served as a law clerk at the firm during her final year of law school.

Recognition & Involvement

Prior to beginning law school, Marianne worked for a large, national insurance carrier in the Office of the General Counsel.

Marianne is on the Board of the Young Friends of the Breathing Room Foundation, which provides relief to families affected by cancer.
