

White and Williams Provides Counsel to Tech Company in Acquisition

January 21, 2015

Axiome Group completed the acquisition of J9 Technologies, Inc. to extend its reach and product portfolio in the North American market.

Axiome is a global products, services and advisory firm focused on helping customers making key decisions about their business-critical applications, while J9 has products and services that guide customers through tuning and managing applications for IT operations. Axiome and J9 together will provide a full service value chain including plan – build – test and run stages for strategic applications and systems.

A team of White and Williams lawyers provided counsel to J9 Technologies. Lawyers involved in the deal were Lori Smith, John Eagan, Josh Galante and Adam Accay.
