

Anthony Salvino Discusses Proposed Workers' Compensation Act Amendment

April 24, 2016

House Bill 1800, which would amend the century-old Workers' Compensation Act to require medical treatment for injured workers to meet guidelines established by a panel of medical providers, has been met with opposition by many attorneys.

Anthony Salvino, on the other hand, talks with The Legal Intelligencer about potential implications of the bill on workers' compensation litigation as well as possible benefits to injured workers and their employers.
