White and Williams LLP will respond to direct inquiries from site visitors, but White and Williams LLP does not otherwise use information collected from visitors to our site for marketing or recruiting purposes, and White and Williams LLP does not provide or sell such information to third parties. We do use the information supplied by you or your browser to track the popularity of this site and the usefulness of particular links or features. We do not use this information to target individuals for marketing or recruiting. We also do not currently use "cookies" - files written to your computer and designed to help track website visitors' surfing activities.

Data protection for the firm is coordinated and overseen by the firm's Chief Privacy Officer, Chief Information Officer, and Information Security and Privacy Office Team (iSPOT). If you have questions or requests concerning your information, email us at bordenr@whiteandwilliams.com or mooneyj@whiteandwilliams.com. You also may contact us at (215) 864-7000.

We reserve the right to change this policy at any time without advance notice. If we do change the policy, the new policy will not go into effect until it is posted here and will only apply to information collected after the new policy goes into effect. If you have any questions about this policy, please contact us.
