Philadelphia, PA
t. 215.864.6205
f. 215.789.7505

Patti is recognized by her clients and peers as a leading attorney in the field of complex insurance coverage. She has devoted more than 30 years to the representation of insurance company clients.

OVERVIEW

Patti Santelle is Chair Emeritus of the firm. For seven years, as the Managing Partner and Chair of the Executive Committee, Patti was responsible for carrying out the strategic plan and policies of the firm, overseeing the management of the operations of the firm and such other duties and responsibilities as are typically associated with being a chief executive officer. When Patti was appointed to that position in December 2013, she was the first woman in the firm's history and in the City of Philadelphia to serve in that role in a major law firm. During her tenure, the firm grew to over 200 lawyers in ten offices in six states. Prior to being Managing Partner, Patti served as Chair of the Commercial Litigation Department, as well as Co-Chair of the firm's Insurance Coverage and Bad Faith Practice.

Patti is recognized by her clients and peers as a leading attorney in the field of complex insurance coverage. She has devoted more than 30 years to the representation of insurance company clients in matters involving asbestos, environmental, toxic tort and long-tail claims. She is known for her depth of experience, responsiveness, drive and ability to craft solutions for her clients, whether they are in litigation or not. Patti thoroughly understands the needs of her insurer clients.

Patti's practice includes the prosecution and defense of insurers in coverage actions in state and federal courts around the country as well as alternative dispute resolution proceedings. She also negotiates the resolution of disputed coverage claims and counsels insurance company clients on claims litigation strategy, claims resolution procedures and coverage questions.

While she is an experienced litigator, Patti's practice is not limited to litigation. She devotes a substantial portion of her practice to counseling her clients outside the context of litigation. Patti is also a frequent speaker at industry seminars and

While in law school, Patti was President of the Student Bar Association, winner (overall and best brief) of the Hunter Advanced Moot Court Competition and a member of the school's National Moot Court Team. After graduation, she served as Judicial Clerk to the Honorable Daniel J. O'Hern, Associate Justice, Supreme Court of New Jersey, and an associate with the Morristown, New Jersey firm of Pitney, Hardin Kipp & Szuch. She joined White and Williams in 1990.

Patti is a former member and Past Chair of the District IV Ethics Committee in New Jersey and has been appointed three times by the Supreme Court of New Jersey to serve as a Special Master on complex ethics proceedings in New Jersey. She was a 20-year member and Past Chancellor of the Board of the Rutgers-Camden Law Alumni Association. In 2010, Patti was given the Scarlet Oak Meritorious Service Award by Rutgers University for her contributions as an alumni leader and student mentor at the Rutgers-Camden School of Law. In 2020, she was appointed as one of the first Co-Chairs of the Executive Committee of the newly established Rutgers Law Alumnae Network. The network's mission is to bring together alumnae from both law schools to support each other as well as current law school students. Patti is the 2020 recipient of the Arthur E. Armitage Sr. Distinguished Alumni Award, which honors Rutgers Law graduates who have achieved an extraordinary level of success through their legal and professional experience and exemplary community leadership.

RECOGNITION AND INVOLVEMENT

Since 2016, Patti has been recognized by Chambers USA as a leading lawyer and eminent practitioner in Pennsylvania Insurance law. She is described by clients as a "formidable" litigator who provides high-quality advice on sophisticated insurance coverage matters and is well-versed in asbestos and long-tail claims with an impressive roster of carriers on regional and nationwide disputes.

Since 2005, Patti has been selected in a survey of her peers as a Pennsylvania "Super Lawyer" by Super Lawyers. Patti has also been recognized in The Best Lawyers in America for the practice area of Insurance Law.

For the past several years, Patti has been nominated by her peers and named to Who's Who in Legal for her work in the field of Insurance and Reinsurance. She was selected as one of the Top 250 Women in Litigation for her work in the Insurance field. In 2016, she was among the 25 women recognized by The Legal Intelligencer as "Top Women In Law."

In 2015, Patti was appointed to the inaugural Corporate Council for the Children's Hospital of Philadelphia (CHOP). The council is comprised of top executives who serve as advisers and advocates for CHOP, providing strategic insight to strengthen the hospital's partnerships. Its members act as public ambassadors for the hospital and are committed to advancing CHOP's research, teaching, clinical priorities, and innovative research initiatives.

Since 2018, Patti has served as a Co-Chair of the Philadelphia Bar Association's Large Firm Management Committee.

In 2021, Patti was appointed to the Large Firm Management Committee of the Pennsylvania Bar Association.

In 2021, Patti was appointed to the Board of Directors of the Committee of Seventy, an independent, non-partisan nonprofit organization which advocates for better government in the City of Philadelphia. The Board consists of business, legal and civic leaders.

Patti is a former member and Past Chair of the District IV Ethics Committee in New Jersey and has been appointed three times by the Supreme Court of New Jersey to serve as a Special Master on complex ethics proceedings in New Jersey. She was a 20-year member and Past Chancellor of the Board of the Rutgers-Camden Law Alumni Association. In 2010, Patti was given the Scarlet Oak Meritorious Service Award by Rutgers University for her contributions as an alumni leader and student mentor at the Rutgers-Camden School of Law. In 2020, she was appointed as one of the first Co-Chairs of the Executive Committee of the newly established Rutgers Law Alumnae Network. The network's mission is to bring together alumnae from both law schools to support each other as well as current law school students.

Patti is President of the Board of Trustees of the C. Wallace Stuard Sailing Foundation and a current member of the Legal Committee and former Board Member of the Corinthian Yacht Club of Cape May.

Patti has handled pro bono matters for the Homeless Advocacy Project, the Senior Law Center of Philadelphia, and Volunteers for the Indigent (VIP) Tangled Title Program, and recently completed training to handles cases through the Support Center for Child Advocates.
