Bob has more than 30 years of experience and is called on by major excess carriers to try some of their most difficult and largest exposure matters.

OVERVIEW

As a trial lawyer for more than 30 years, Robert Devine has been preparing for and trying cases in multiple jurisdictions, achieving maximum results – whether it's obtaining a settlement or verdict – across all of his practices. Bob concentrates his practice in the areas of catastrophic loss matters, construction litigation, employment law, commercial litigation, professional liability, products liability, premises liability, transportation law and dram shop liability. He frequently handles cases involving product recalls. Bob represents both insured and self-insured entities. He also serves as regional and local counsel for manufacturers, trucking companies, general contractors, retail convenience food markets and other commercial enterprises.

He is looked to by major excess carriers to try some of their most difficult and largest exposure matters pending in the region.

As Chair of the Litigation Department, Bob manages over 70 attorneys in six offices where the White and Williams commitment to excellence in providing optimal results in a cost-effective manner is carried forward into every one of the departments' lawyers' practices. In addition, Bob is a member of the firm's Executive and Partner Compensation Committees. As Chair of the Catastrophic and Excess Liability Group, the focus is maintained on fully and completely preparing matters for trial, at any retention point along the life cycle of the file, which permits the rather unique service of trial lawyers bringing additional levels of analysis, trial strategy and courtroom trial technique to be realized.

RECOGNITION AND INVOLVEMENT

Bob has been AV® Preeminent™ rated by the Martindale-Hubbell rating system. Bob was recently selected by his peers for inclusion in The Best Lawyers in America 2021 list in the practice area of Litigation - Insurance.
