

Policing and Protecting Copyrights on the Internet: Latest Approaches and Developments

Strafford Webinar
11.1.18

PRACTICE AREAS

Intellectual Property

The internet is a continually evolving testing ground for new methods of copyright protection and novel theories of infringement.

Partner, Randy Friedberg serves on a panel examining recent court rulings, the tools available to monitor copyrights, fair use defenses, the DMCA safe harbor and the scope and limitations of copyright protections on the internet. The panel will also outline the tools available to monitor IP rights and examine fair use defenses and the DMCA safe harbor.
