

East Coast Meets West Coast – Hot Construction Defect Issues and Coverage Cases from the Other Coast

2018 West Coast Casualty Construction Defect Seminar (Anaheim, CA)
5.16.18

Since 1993, the West Coast Casualty Construction Defect Seminar has become an institution, a staple and “must go” to event for all the members of the construction defect community. It is the largest event of its kind worldwide and continues into its 25th year of bringing the national and international construction defect community its most informative event regarding this specialized subject.

“East Coast Meets West Coast – Hot Construction Defect Issues and Coverage Cases from the Other Coast,” highlights some of the unique aspects of construction defect litigation or coverage in East Coast states, including:

- Pennsylvania’s Kvaerner/Gambone’s holdings that faulty workmanship is not an occurrence
- New Jersey’s duty to reimburse under the Burd v. Sussex case
- Statutory and case law developments impacting construction defect liability and defense issues

Panelists:

- Anthony Miscioscia, White and Williams LLP
- Mark Parisi, White and Williams LLP
- Mark McGivern, Construction Consulting Associates, LLC
