

Digital Health: Navigating the Reimbursement Landscape

PBI Health Law Institute 2020 (Philadelphia, PA)
3.12.20

As digital health platforms become more prevalent, digital health providers will need to navigate the regulatory environment applicable to both governmental and private payors in order to be reimbursed for their services.

Counsel Stephen Bowers and Dana Petrillo will discuss the relevant laws, as well as the contracting and payment issues that such providers will face at the PBI Health Law Institute 2020.
