

Give Stronger Deposition and Trial Testimony

International Association of Arson Investigators
11.10.22

Join Partner Chris Konzelmann as he presents a course explaining the deposition process in civil litigation, reviews situations where an investigator can be vulnerable, and teaches the investigator how to demonstrate confidence and a strong presence while testifying during a deposition or trial. Specific topics include: Expert witness qualifications; NFPA 921 and the scientific method as used while providing testimony; understanding Daubert: expert reports; the deposition process; expert witness vulnerabilities; and how to testify with confidence.
