

Live Burn to Learn

Chester County Public Safety Training Facility (Coatesville, PA)
9.16.16

The Subrogation Department co-sponsored a Live Burn Event at the Chester County Public Safety Training Facility in Coatesville, PA on September 16, 2016. The daylong event included classroom sessions on fire investigation techniques, mitigation of damages, a presentation by partner Chris Konzelmann on properly establishing our burden of proof at trial and two live burns replicating residential fires. The event was well attended by first party adjusters, first responders and subrogation professionals.
