

State Specific Subrogation Coast to Coast (Part 1 and 2)

National Association of Subrogation Professionals Annual Conference
11.17.20

Brett Tishler will present at the National Association of Subrogation Professionals (NASP) Annual Conference. His programs "State Specific Subrogation Coast to Coast (Part 1 and 2)," will examine the "nuts and bolts" of subrogation and employer liability trends in select jurisdictions, while also addressing significant case law developments over the past year. Do you have trouble understanding the nuances of a particular state's workers' compensation subrogation laws? Workers' compensation subrogation law is highly regulated and statutorily dependent, with considerable variations across the country. Attendees will learn the essential features of the law and have an open forum for questions.
