

The Future of Higher Ed Summit

Lehigh Valley Business Webinar
9.29.20

The uncertainty surrounding COVID-19 and higher education has forced colleges and universities to adapt to a mostly online or hybrid environment. Higher Education partner Nancy Conrad and a panel of other esteemed higher education professionals from the Lehigh Valley and surrounding areas will present a lively discussion about the current Fall semester and the Spring and Fall 2021 semesters, including how issues related to technology, financial sources and the health and safety of the campus community all factor into the analysis.
