

Six-Figure Settlement Arising From Hot Work Fire

Chris Konzelmann, Partner in the Subrogation Department, pursued a welding contractor in a case arising from a fire that occurred while the contractor was welding on an elevated platform. The litigation involved several discovery disputes and a comparative negligence defense. The parties mediated the matter virtually with Chris negotiating a settlement in the high six figures.