

Chambers USA 2021 Ranks White and Williams as a Leading Law Firm

5.20.21

White and Williams is once again recognized by Chambers USA as a leading law firm in Pennsylvania for achievements and client service in the areas of insurance law, real estate finance and banking and finance law. The firm has also been recognized for achievements and client service in banking and finance law in Philadelphia and the surrounding area. In addition, five lawyers received individual honors – two for their work in insurance, one for his work in real estate finance, another for her work in bankruptcy and restructuring and one for his work in commercial litigation.

White and Williams is acknowledged for our renowned practice offering exceptional representation to insurers and reinsurers across an impressive range of areas including coverage, bad faith litigation and excess liability. The firm is recognized for notable strength in transactional and regulatory matters, complemented by the team's adroit handling of complex alternative dispute resolution proceedings. Chambers USA also acknowledged the firm's broad trial capabilities, including handling data privacy, professional liability, toxic tort coverage claims, and experience in substantial claims arising from bodily injury and wrongful death suits. White and Williams' cross-disciplinary team is also highlighted, as one source commented that "all advice was reasoned and respectful. They worked well together and provided exceptional representation."

Additionally, Chambers USA recognized White and Williams as a respected firm equipped to handle a range of financing matters, including transactions such as acquisition loans, mezzanine and mortgage loans and preferred equity investments. The firm is recognized for adeptness at advising on both domestic and international matters and was highlighted for our broad range of experience. One source commented that "the White and Williams team has broad and in-depth expertise in a number of industries and areas." Another source stated that the group has "strengths in real estate finance and are very competent in this area."

Partner Timothy Davis was named a Leading Lawyer in real estate finance. Tim is an experienced real estate finance lawyer with deep experience representing investment funds, insurance companies and banks in a wide array of real estate finance transactions. "He is terrific and is well regarded for mezzanine lending work," one source commented. Another said, "he is a thoughtful lawyer."
