

Nancy Conrad Elected to Board of Directors for Pennsylvania Bar Institute

8.17.15

Nancy Conrad, Partner and Chair of the Labor and Employment and Education Law Groups, has been elected to serve a three-year term on the Pennsylvania Bar Institute's Board of Directors. She recently took office at PBI's annual meeting, which was held in conjunction with the Pennsylvania Bar Association's Annual Meeting.

Since 1965, the Pennsylvania Bar Institute has served as the continuing legal education arm of the Pennsylvania Bar Association. The organization is responsible for providing seminars, publications and online training resources for the legal community throughout the state.

This will be Nancy's first term on the PBI Board of Directors. Two additional new members join three returning representatives on the six-person board.
