

Patti Santelle and Andy Susko Named to CHOP's Corporate Council

12.9.15

Patti Santelle, the firm's Managing Partner, and Andy Susko, Co-Chair of the Litigation Group, have been appointed to the inaugural Corporate Council for the Children's Hospital of Philadelphia (CHOP). The council is comprised of top executives who serve as advisers and advocates for CHOP, providing strategic insight to strengthen the hospital's partnerships. Its members act as public ambassadors for the hospital and are committed to advancing CHOP's research, teaching, clinical priorities, and innovative research initiatives.

Founded in 1855, CHOP is the nation's first hospital devoted exclusively to the care of children. It has fostered medical discoveries and innovations that have improved pediatric healthcare and has repeatedly earned a spot on the U.S. News and World Report's Honor Roll of the nation's best children's hospitals.
